Daniel R. Furth – President
National Tank Truck Carriers, Inc.

Daniel R. Furth was appointed President of the National Tank Truck Carriers, Inc. (NTTC) in August 2012. Prior to this, he served as the NTTC's Vice President beginning in July 2008. Furth is an experienced executive with a proven track record advising c-level managers in diverse industries for both public and private corporations. Prior to joining the NTTC staff, he served for three years as executive vice president of Health Discovery Corporation, a small, public biotech company based in Savannah, Georgia. His experience in the tank truck industry began in high school when he worked for the original Quality Carriers, Inc., then based in Lake Bluff, Illinois. He later returned to the tank truck industry in 1994, when he joined Tampa-based MTL Inc. where he played an integral role in MTL's initial public offering, its subsequent leveraged buyout, its combination with Chemical Leaman, and its ultimate rebranding as Quality Distribution/Quality Carriers (QD). At QD, he managed the company's corporate communications, marketing communications, investor relations, and public affairs functions while also serving as chief of staff to QD's Chairman/CEO.
